Sunday 21 January

Break down the walls of all my religion

Ask God to highlight areas of our lives where we have replaced the life of His Spirit with tradition, habit and religion, and to restore the vitality of our relationship with Him.

May the church be led by the Holy Spirit, exercising power and authority, rather than merely expressing a form of godliness devoid of spiritual life.

Our city and nation contain people of different faiths and no faith. Pray for revival to come that people might be freed from religion and find relationship with the true and living God.
